PREAMBLE

This manual includes all dispositions and amendments approved by the President of National University College, Dr. Gloria E. Baquero Lleras. In its composition, we have adopted the norms specified in the American English Dictionary about the use of gender, however, as an educational institution, we accept and use inclusive language.

The dispositions contained in this manual are in harmony with the fundamental principles established by the Constitution of Puerto Rico guaranteeing the rights of every individual to an education that will lead to the full development of their personality, capacities, and the enforcement of their rights, their fundamental freedoms, and human dignity.

Students at National University College are those who are officially registered, independently of their chosen field of study. It is of the utmost importance that all students, administrative personnel, and faculty members read the contents of this Manual in order to familiarize themselves and adhere to the procedures, norms, and standards established by the Institution for the sake of maintaining order and harmony. Lack of awareness of standards and procedures included in this Manual will not excuse students from being penalized for offenses established herein.

2. Identify the Institutional Representatives that are responsible for handling all matters pertaining to or addressed in this document.

I. Procedure for sanctioning faults on Academic Integrity

Sanctions for breaches in NUC's Academic Integrity Policies

Once a breach on Academic Integrity is identified, the professor shall document the nature of such breach so as to determine the correct measure or sanction to be applied. Sanctions that may incur in faults are dependent on the following factors:

1. Whether it is the student’s first offense.
2. Whether the fault was intentional.
3. Whether the fault was committed by mistake or negligence.
4. Whether the student recognizes the fault once presented with the evidence.
5. Whether the offense occurs early or late in the student’s academic program.
6. Whether the offense is related to a minor assignment or a project leading to graduation, like an investigation, thesis, or research monograph.
7. Whether the fault has a major impact on the learning environment of the Institution.

As an educational Institution, NUC has established in their Institutional Policies that they shall not tolerate any acts of falsification, false declarations, and intellectual dishonesty, whether intentional or unintentional. NUC promotes the development of an academic culture where ethics and respect for the intellectual work of others permeates. As such, they have established sanctions relevant to the student's offense with the purpose of educating the student prior to applying a major sanction.

Sanctions:

1. 1st offense: Failing the assignment for which the fault was committed and a written warning from the professor with copy to the Dean and the Director of Student Affairs or the Dean of Student Services (Long Distance Division). Such warning will include a description of the fault committed against our Academic Integrity Policies and an appeal so that such behavior is not repeated.
2. 2nd offense: Failing the class for which the fault was committed. The professor shall recommend that the student fail the course given the reoccurrence of such conduct.

Procedure: The professor shall notify the Head of the Department or Academic Advisor (online students), the Dean of Academics, and the Director of Student Affairs or the Dean of Student Services (Long Distance Division). Such notification will be submitted within the next ten (10) days following the date of the action. Reproaching the course grade will be decided by the Head of the Department or Academic Advisor and the Dean of Academics. Such decisions will not be made arbitrarily or capriciously. A written notification will be sent to the Registrars Office to be included in the student's file.

3. 3rd offense: Expulsion or definite separation from the University.
   Procedure: The professor will provide written notification of the action to the Head of the Department or Academic Advisor (online students) with copy to the Director of Student Affairs or the Dean of Student Services (Long Distance Division). The Director of Student Affairs will activate the Disciplinary Committee to compile the evidence of all three offenses and analyze the case in order to determine whether an expulsion or definitive separation from the University is merited.

Guidelines for Analyzing the Offense:

1. At the Associate Degree, Degree, and Master level course, 75% of the work must be original. A maximum of 25% of the written work may be obtained from diverse sources of information that must be cited appropriately according to the APA style.

2. The student may use ideas presented previously on other courses for future classes. In such cases, they may only use 50% of the previous written work, not counting references. It is the student’s responsibility to inform their instructor of the situation by writing the following disclaimer at the top of their presented work: “Some parts of this investigation have been presented on (course code and title) and (date of original submittal) with professor (name and last name of professor).”

In order to detect any offense to our Policies on Academic Integrity, there exists various mechanisms and technologies that verify the originality of the documents, including a final percent on plagiarism count. As part of the Institution’s plan for ongoing training of our Long Distance Education personnel, the use and management of such verification tools is standard and will be extended to the academic personnel of all of NUC’s physical campuses.

Disciplinary Committee

As a representative of the Institution, this Committee bears great responsibility and importance. It will demonstrate objectivity in all its decision-making processes, acting without prejudice and with the best interest of the entire college community. Such committee will be known as Disciplinary Committee and shall be composed of people who show compromise with our Mission.

Disciplinary Committee Member Functions

1. Ensuring the compliance of rules and regulations established in this Manual.
2. Shall emit decisions based solely on compiled evidence and the committee’s investigation.
3. Shall emit decisions based on the values of our Institution.
4. Shall hold knowledge of and handle all norms, policies, and institutional procedures.
5. Shall analyze all evidence provided by the Secretary of the Disciplinary Committee and shall make it’s recommendations in accordance with the articles established in this Manual.
6. When convened, attendance is mandatory for all members of the committee.

The Institution is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for students with Special Needs in both academic programs and University activities.

Our policy for Students with Special Needs complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Law of 1973, which establishes that no beneficiary of federal financial aid may discriminate against an individual with special needs, and also complies with the Americans Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA Law), about individuals with special needs, and Civil Rights Law, as well as with Law 250 of 2012 also known as the Post-Secondary Passport for Reasonable Accommodations Law for High School Students with Disabilities Aspiring to enroll in Post Secondary Institutions. It adopts affirmative measures for stimulating the competitive academic inclusion of students with disabilities, especially, those with Attention Deficit Disorder, specific learning disabilities, and other conditions that represent challenges in cognitive development.

Principles of Application of Policies for Students with Special Needs:
1. Prohibits discriminating against people with special needs.
2. Develops resources to stimulate and increase sensibility and awareness regarding the inherent elements of special needs.
3. Promotes the availability of reasonable accommodations for students with special needs.

Rights and Responsibilities of Students with Special Needs

In NUC, people with special needs have the following rights:

NUC has the following rights and responsibilities:

1. Request up to date documentation, or regular updates in order to evaluate the needs for necessary adjustments.

1. Notify the Admissions Officer that they require special accommodations during enrollment in order to convene the Admissions Evaluation Committee.
2. Provide the Evaluation Committee the documentation establishing the need for reasonable accommodations, like a COMPU from public institutions or a referral letter from a Guidance Counselor from a private institution. COMPU is the Placement and Programming Committee as defined by Law 51 of June 7th, 1996, as amended.
3. Once admitted into the Institution, the student must periodically update the information in their reasonable accommodations application and submit it to the Professional Counselor in the Office of Student Affairs. Online students should contact their assigned Professional Counselors by email with attention to the Office of Special Services of the Vice President of Student Affairs, PO BOX 2036, Bayamon, PR, 11960.
4. In the case of an online student taking courses in a campus, they should submit the documents to the Professional Counselor of that campus.
5. In the case of regular students requiring special accommodations after their being admitted into the institution, they should submit their applications when necessary and update such application once the following semester’s registration is processed. This way the institution shall have the time necessary to process the petition and facilitate the student’s integration into the college community in fair and equal conditions. The Professional Counselor shall receive the petition and meet the necessary procedures.

6. Providing the proper documents for justifying the special accommodations. They should be from a certified professional, like a doctor, psychologist, psychiatrist, or other pertinent professional.

Admissions Evaluation Committee Composition

1. The Evaluation Committee shall be composed of:

It shall also analyze and make recommendations for each case in relation to the admissions process of the person with special needs and shall present their recommendations to the Office of Admissions of the University Institution.

Determination of Reasonable Academic Accommodations

Academic reasonable accommodations shall be determined once all the necessary documents certifying a need that justifies a reasonable adaptation are received. This shall include any modification or adjustment to a course, program, service, employ, activity or mechanism to ensure equal opportunities for an individual with special needs, allowing them to reach the same level of achievement or enjoying the same benefits and privileges as are available to those without special needs.

A determination of Reasonable Accommodations shall consider the following:
1. The physical barriers and the series of adjustments necessary to eliminate those barriers.
2. Whether the student has access to a course, program, service, activity, or facility without adjustments.
3. If the essential elements of the course, program, service, activity or facility shall be compromised by the adjustments.

How will a case related to a Domestic Violence situation be handled?

Uniform Measures and Procedures in Case Management

If a professor, supervisor, or employee has knowledge or evidence that a student of any course program is experiencing a domestic violence situation, they should observe the procedures referenced in the Office of Orientation and Counseling. They should ensure the student the strictest confidentiality and inform them of the Institution’s responsibilities of supporting and identifying actions to ensure their safety and that of others. The matter should be handled sensibly in the following manner:

1. Explore the risk level by asking of the existence of firearms, severity of aggressive behavior, whether there have been death threats, what family members may provide support, etc.
2. Once a domestic violence situation is determined, the matter shall be referred to an agency specialized in handling cases of domestic violence and if necessary, it shall inform the student’s professors to make any adjustments necessary in relation to their academic responsibilities.
3. The Professional Counselor shall interview the student to explore the situation and such interview shall be held under a confidentiality agreement. In cases where the aggressor is currently studying in the same campus, special measures shall be taken to ensure the student’s safety, including special arrangements with campus security, revisions of current restraining orders, transferring the student to a different academic unit or changing their schedule, among others.
4. Together with the victim, they shall develop a security plan that will consider all risk situations, the aggressor’s dangerousness, the risks, threats, possible referral to a shelter, family resources, among others. The same should be prepared while waiting for the intervention of domestic violence professionals.
5. All affected by the security plan shall be informed.
6. If, after receiving orientation, the student refuses the services offered, and depending on the severity of the violence manifested in the work or study environment, the Institution shall proceed to inform the student that the pertinent help has been requested, as disposed by Law 538 for the Prevention and Intervention of Domestic Violence of 2004.
7. If the student provides a Restraining Order, a copy shall be provided to security personnel and the Office of Student Affairs.
8. The situation shall be followed up as necessary.
9. The victim shall be assured no actions will be held against them, since that would constitute discrimination, and will offer any special accommodations necessary.
10. The Office of Professional Counseling shall ensure the student’s files are handled accordingly.

11. Even without the victim’s consent, Security Personnel will be informed of the existence of any current restraining orders in order to take the necessary precautions.

NOTIFICATION OF SECURITY CAMERA SYSTEM USE

NUC has taken a series of security measures in its campuses in order to maintain a harmonious and safe working environment. Security Cameras may be present in order to prevent and detect any anomaly in the daily operations that may threaten the security of the academic community. NUC community members will be notified of such measures.

PROCEDURE FOR NOTIFYING SITUATIONS RELATED TO SECURITY POLICIES

Any student, upon facing any situation that threatens their life or personal property, shall immediately notify the Security Officers. The officers will prepare a report for the Vice President of Student Affairs or the Rector of Campus, or any of their representatives, who will in turn, refer the situation to ensure that corresponding investigations take place.

The aforementioned employees shall immediately notify the Puerto Rico Police Department or Municipal Police in such cases where the investigation unearths a criminal act. If a police investigation ensues, campus employees shall keep copies of all documents and reports on the case.

These employees shall gather information and evaluate statistics relative to the following crimes: murder, rape, stealing, aggravated assaults, involuntary manslaughter, breaking and entering, car theft, and arrest due to illegal possession of weapons or controlled substances and alcoholic beverages violations as defined by the Uniform System of information gathering of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

In those situations that should require it, employees of each campus may activate medical emergency services, private or public, available at the moment.

If the investigated situation involves the culpability of a student, all applicable sanctions in this manual and those provided by the law will be imposed.

PREVENTION AND RAPID RESPONSE PROTOCOL FOR HIGH RISK BEHAVIOR AND SITUATIONS

I. Introduction

Maintaining a healthy, safe environment has been an important statement and compromise for all post secondary educational institutions. Federal Regulation #101-226 of August 16, 1990, for a Drug and Alcohol Free Environment and the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics or “Clery Act”, require that every post secondary institution that receives federal funds maintain health standards through verifiable and analyzable efforts.
In lieu of recent violent events in various universities of the US, there is an ongoing need to establish certain procedures in order to ensure the rights of students and those around them. Therefore, NUC has created the Prevention and Rapid Response Protocol for High Risk Behavior and Situations.

II. Purpose

The Prevention and Rapid Response Protocol for High Risk Behavior and Situations is established with the purpose of identifying, informing, and managing possible high-risk situations or people that may culminate in some form of violent act that threatens their safety and those around them.

Puerto Rico has a high incidence of violent acts, clearly showcasing the mental health problem facing Puerto Rican society. As part of that society, NUC recognizes the need to establish uniform procedures that validate NUC’s Institutional Security Policy. NUC has also established procedures for Crisis Intervention in both online and campus students.

IV. Procedure to follow in dangerous situations

NUC has created a procedure in order to handle any emergency situations that may arise within our community. The same shall indicate the steps to follow in high-risk situations, suspicious behavior, and situations of imminent danger.

For that reason, all employees and students should be oriented and informed of these procedures. Please note that the entire University community should be aware of these procedures in order to identify and seek help should the need arise.

A. Suspicious Behavior – If anyone observes suspicious behavior in a student, they should immediately refer the situation to Security Personnel. Such referral shall be written, emailed, or telephoned (according to the type of situation) with some details to help identify the student, for example: course program and full name.

The situation will be handled including the referrals and community services coordination like hospitals, informing the necessary family members, and making the necessary faculty arrangements. The case may also be referred to the 911 Emergency System if necessary. Once the student reintegrates to the college community, personnel will follow up the case to ensure the best possible outcome. If the situation does not involve a student, descriptive details of the person should be offered in order to identify the individual.

B. Imminent Danger Situation – In the event of an imminent danger situation, identified personnel will contact the Security Office so they take the necessary measures. The Alert Committee will be activated, notifying the entire University community of the imminent danger situation and alerting 911. These events may need to happen simultaneously depending on the type of emergency.

The Alert Committee shall be strategically located and remain within the campus facilities. They will need to be accessible, have a telephone and name a permanent member.

The Alert Committee shall be composed of Security Personnel, Human Resources Personnel or the Rector of Campus, Office of Student Affairs Personnel and Deans of Academics.

It is important to bear in mind that these individuals must be capable of making decisions and demonstrating leadership. The Alert Committee shall also collaborate by minimizing possible panic reactions. Special care should be taken to keep the people and situation under control.

¿What to do after the event?

Once the situation has passed, the Alert Committee should be debriefed, evaluating how the situation was handled and offering support and counseling to those affected. The Committee will also proceed to:

1. Evaluate the speed of the response.
2. Offer counseling to the personnel who handled the situation when such might have affected any member.
3. Evaluate the need for further training or assessments.
4. Design any Training Programs or Workshops the Committee might deem necessary to further enhance personnel skills.
Preventive Measures
1. Identifying student and faculty vehicles.
2. Keeping control over who enters the facilities.
